IN RE: AML GRANT CORRESPONDENCE FROM PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

Prosecuting Attorney, Gary Morris, advised the Commission on the pending issue with the counties and the water company pending before the WV PSC in regard to the Bloody Run Water Project. Mr. Morris stated it appeared that the Commission going forward with the four (4) residences on Bloody Run Project is clearly distinguishable from the issue currently being litigated in the PSC forum as the Bloody Run Project is fully funded by Abandoned Mine Lands funds, without contribution from WV American Water. It is Mr. Morris' opinion that the issues in controversy in PSC Case No. 11-1451 W-C would not be compromised the county Commissions' acquiescence in the Bloody Run Project. A decision on the PSC law suit should be getting water in the near future.
