IN RE: GARY MORRIS, PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, VARIOUS ISSUES

1. Class Action Law Suit (Fibernet): After discussion, it was decided that the Lewis County Commission was not eligible for the suit against Fibernet. They did not have Fibernet services until 2010.
2. Class Action Law Suit (Wyoming County): An eye should be kept on the Wyoming County Clerk's suit and if became a class action suit an attorney would not be necessary to represent Lewis County if they decided to join suit.
3. Lewis County Health Department Proposed Smoking Ordinance Ban: More research needed, but it could be possible that Commission could be held liable through their appointments to the board, but at this time more research was needed. Mr. Morris's opinion at this time is as follows: "The Ordinance appears to me, at first blush, to be overbroad, lacking in fundamental due process requirements and vague. I will detail my objections in more detail in a subsequent letter to you and detail my concerns for the potential ramifications for the Board Members deliberating on the same."
4. Pioneer Cemetery Transfer of Deed: A draft was presented to the Commission for approval of the Declaratory Judgment against the Town of Jane Lew. This is necessary to transfer ownership of the Cemetery to the community and Town of Jane Lew.
5. Health Insurance: A request by Prosecutor, Gary Morris, to receive Health Insurance upon his retirement in the same manner and form as other retirees have been granted, was approved upon motion of Agnes G. Queen, second by Thomas V. Fealy, vote unanimous.

IN RE: LEWIS COUNTY JUDICIAL ANNEX UPDATE

Fealy, vote unanimous to make application to the Weston City Council to permanently close School Drive from Bank Alley to First Street.
